

The Institute for Genocide Awareness and Applied Research
(IGAAR)

&

Nova Southeastern University

Presents:

The 2nd Annual IGAAR Conference

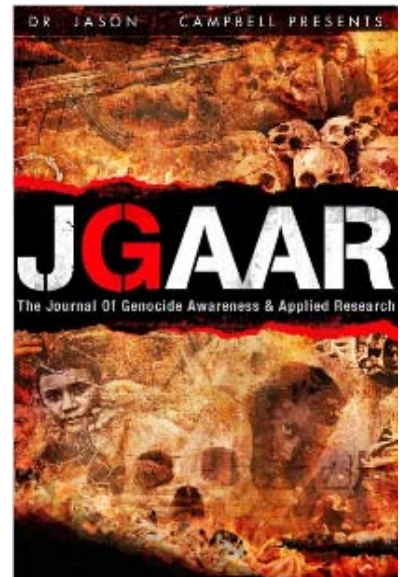

Keynote Speaker: Professor Edward Kissi

Conference Details:

- ◆ Conference: November 12, 2011.
- ◆ Deadline for Final Submissions: October 30, 2011.
- ◆ Held in beautiful Ft. Lauderdale, Florida at Nova Southeastern University
- ◆ 1 graduate student will receive the IGAAR Annual Graduate Student Research Award and a $500.00 cash prize for excellence in a graduate research paper.
- ◆ Select papers will be published in JGAAR: The Journal for Genocide Awareness and Applied Research. [In both Digital ISSN: 2152-1891 and Print ISSN: 2160-2131 Formats]

Conference Themes:

- ◆ The Nature of Genocide
- ◆ Definitional Difficulties in Classifying Genocide
- ◆ Child Soldiers
- ◆ Environmental Degradation and Genocide
- ◆ Torture and Human Rights Violations
- ◆ Ethnic Conflict and Genocide
- ◆ Spirituality and Genocide
- ◆ Philosophical and / or Ethical Accounts of Genocide
- ◆ International Law and Genocide
- ◆ Pedagogical Approaches to Teaching Genocide

Brief Requirements

- ◆ All papers must be prepared for blind review. No information identifying the author can be included in the final submission.
- ◆ A paper of 3000 words or approximately 12 pages in length is required for submission. Papers beyond 3500 or less than 2500 words will not be considered for the conference.
- ◆ Participants will be limited to 20 minute presentations.

Submissions:

- ◆ Please visit <http://www.igaar.org/CallForPapers.aspx> to read the complete author guidelines and submit your paper.

---Thanks.